

Captain Louie W. White

Captain Louie W. White, age 76, of Austin was called home to be with his Lord and Savior on Saturday. Public viewing will be held 11:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. on Friday, January 2, 2009 at the Phillips, Upshaw and Richard Funeral Home located at 1410 East 12th St. in Austin. A memorial will be held on Friday, January 2, 2009 at 6:30 p.m. at the David Chapel Baptist Church located at 2211 East M.L.K. Blvd., in Austin. Captain White was a graduate of L.C. Anderson High School and attended Huston-Tillotson College. He was active in his church and was known for his 15-year commitment to the Rosewood Parks and Recreation Center as he portrayed Christ on the cross in "The Pilgrimage to the Cross". It was his love for community, and family that drew him to the Austin Police Academy, where he graduated in 1959. He accomplished 29 years and 8 months of service with the Austin Police Department. Survivors include wife, Lois J. White; son, Louie White, Jr.; and daughters, Diana Alexander, Debra White, Patricia Hunter, Jacqueline Michelle Howard; sister-in-law, Claudine Ware; grandchildren; great grandchildren; and many loving nieces, nephews and a host of friends. The celebration service will be held on Saturday, January 3, 2009 at 11:00 a.m. at the St. James Baptist Church located at 3417 East M.L.K. Blvd., in Austin.
